

BROOKS FREE LIBRARY READING CHALLENGE 2016

- ◇ A book by a Cape Cod author
- ◇ A book published while you were in high school
- ◇ A book published this year
- ◇ A Schneider Family book award winner
- ◇ A book written by an author with your same initials
- ◇ A classic
- ◇ A book with a character/person living in abject poverty
- ◇ A science fiction novel
- ◇ A book by a minority/non-white author
- ◇ A book by an author from a continent besides North America or Europe
- ◇ A book recommended to you by a patron
- ◇ A book “everyone” has read except you
- ◇ A non-fiction book
- ◇ An historical fiction book
- ◇ A book about parent-child relationship(s)
- ◇ A re-read from your childhood
- ◇ A non-fiction book about a musician/band
- ◇ A book with an LGBTQ main character
- ◇ A book of poetry
- ◇ A book published the year you were born
- ◇ A book with a great first line
- ◇ A book set in summer
- ◇ A book by an author you've always wanted to read
- ◇ A book by an author you've never wanted to read
- ◇ A book originally written in a different language
- ◇ A book you picked solely because of the cover (or title)
- ◇ A book about a sport (fiction or non-fiction)
- ◇ A novel written in epistolary format
- ◇ A book you own(ed) but haven't read
- ◇ A book written by someone when they were over 65
- ◇ A book with recipe(s)
- ◇ A book on the bestseller list more than 50 years ago
- ◇ A book you had to read for a school assignment that you didn't like (or didn't finish)
- ◇ A book using the Axis 360 app
- ◇ A book in a series (but NOT the first)
- ◇ A collection of essays or lectures
- ◇ A book that's a re-imagining of an older story
- ◇ A self-help or personal growth book
- ◇ A book with a one-word title
- ◇ A play